

Workington (Calva) bridge repair

The Grade Two Listed Workington (Calva) bridge was badly damaged in the floods and required detailed structural analysis before it was determined that it could be repaired.

Repair work got underway in June 2010 and is being carried out by Connect Roads on behalf of Cumbria County Council, as part of the CNDR operation and maintenance contract.

Follow the links below for news articles about the bridge repair.

Articles from New Civil Engineer

19/08/2010 - Calva reaches critical stage (pdf 779kb) 📄

27/05/2010 - Cumbria gets stuck into bridge repairs (pdf 802kb) 📄 📄 26/11/2009 - Cumbrian bridges ripped out by torrential floods (pdf 1.6mb) 📄