At what level is machine learning taught?

How is the module delivered? (Block taught, weekly, practical sessions)

Any course prerequisites?

What level of maths skills do you expect the students to have?

What level of programming knowledge do you expect the students to have?

What machine learning topics are covered within the module?

Is there any particular aspect of the module that you focus a lot of time on as you think it is a pivotal topic?

Do you teach any deep learning?

How is the module assessed?

Is there any particular aspect that you feel students struggle with?

Where would you advise students to look for additional information?

Do you receive student feedback on the module?

Module outcome – pass/fail percentage

Do you enjoy teaching the module?

Any specific teaching strategies you employ?